Activities

RESTAURANT	INFORMATION
Tarragona Beach	Find the most beautiful beaches in Tarragona and the surrounding area at this link.
Tarragona	As a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Tarragona captivates visitors with its extraordinary Roman landmarks, including the majestic Amphitheatre and ancient Circus. Beyond its historic charm, the city boasts stunning Mediterranean beaches, lively markets and a rich cultural calendar filled with festivals and events
La Ciutadella Ibèrica   Ajuntament de Calafell	The Ciutadella Ibèrica in Calafell is a significant archaeological site located on a hill, associated with the Iberian tribal group of the Cossetans. Originally founded in the 6th century BC, the site served to control trade and the surrounding areas. The structures include a massive wall, residential houses, cult sites, and storage rooms. The city was abandoned around the 3rd century BC during the Second Punic War. Today, the Ciutadella is part of the European EXARC network for archaeological open-air museums.
Parc Arqueològic - Castell de la Santa Creu - Visita Calafell	The Castle of the Holy Cross, Castell de la Santa Creu, is believed to date back to the 11th century. Admission to the castle includes not only the castle tower, the adjacent Romanesque church, and of course the castle itself, but also the archaeological park that has been established around the castle. Here, you will find various information about the history of the castle and Calafell in general. The archaeological park and the Castell de la Santa Creu are located in the historical center of Calafell, making them easily accessible.
Sitges: Your Ultimate Guide	Sitges, a picturesque coastal town near Barcelona, offers cobblestone streets and scenic beaches. Visitors can explore its historic old town, stunning Church of Sant Bartomeu and cultural landmarks like Maricel Palace and Cau Ferrat Museum.
